

CURRENT COMMENT.
THE MAN-ABOUT-TOWN DISCUSSES ING RAILROADS.

New Richmond Has Been Made a Way Station—Urgent Discriminations Now Existing—Wake Up and Claim Your Rights—Real Railroad Taiks.

The Chamber of Commerce, the citizens of this city, have been crying out for years against railroad discriminations against the capital of Virginia.

Wake up!

There is not a way station, geographically or otherwise. None but scoundrels will locate her as such.

Yet, in herding up with wild ideas, railroads and their men, who really love Virginia, and her capital, have shamed their eyes to cross injustices perpetrated by these people.

These people are pampered with ideas that they have.

Woe! stagnant conceptions of reality based upon baseless fancies cloud days.

It's time to wake up the world, let us alone. Make your way or make your mind up to be content with the drift wood that black water throws in your way.

Do not practice live and let live, for it may be done, but settle down to mutual benevolence.

Then you will be left as sure as you live, and have your being.

RAILROADS HAVE THEIR OWN.

Some two years ago, for reasons well known to themselves, two great railroads of the state had decided to jointly realize out, and, in considering Richmond rather than a third, in the make up of their plan, they shut off certain ceremonial interchanges of courtesy and good will.

Then came the day when the two, the North and Danville, and the Richmond & Danville, and this resulted in the discontinuation of the schedule, by which the traveling public could go from Richmond to Lynchburg, Danville and points south and west, and the same was effected by a connection of the two lines from the Richmond and Danville with trains over the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

Railroads are powerfully still concerned. The Chamber of Commerce, city of Richmond, has an important voice against the alteration of the schedule. The plan failed, but it took time to cure the cankerous cause of dispute, and the TIMES was the first medium through which the public became apprised of the fact, and the say between the railroads had been healed, and the Richmond & Danville a new schedule would be in operation, which would place Richmond several hours nearer Lynchburg than has been the case, and which was in fact a restoration of the old schedule.

PUBLIC STATEMENTS.

Having taken an active interest in this matter, I am determined to feel the pulse of public sentiment, and the man-about-town was detailed for that duty.

The first man he encountered was Mr. Carter Brander, a man of exceptional railroad ideas.

He is very frank. He said he thought it would be hailed with delight by the passenger public. It had no connection whatever with the transit of freight.

Major T. L. Connelly, superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line, said it was simply the resumption of the old schedule, which had never been abolished.

"The Richmond and Danville," said he, "is the city of Richmond, being of course the chief factor in the make up of their plan, and they shut off certain ceremonial interchanges of courtesy and good will."

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

(November 22, 1889.)

Hon. Fitzhugh Lee, Governor of Vir-ginia, Richmond, Va.:

Sir—I am in receipt of your reply of 20th instant, commanding upon the settlement No. 5505, of August, 1889, a balance of $16,925.75 due you Virginia to the United States, one mile—Lynchburg, Belle, H. 104;

Gould Rest, 114; Whitby, 104; Santalou-

ne, 102; King Ridge, 104; Glenwood, 102; W. D. Dry, 102.

ADMITTED TO PROBATE.

Will of Mr. T. C. Leake and Dr. Robert G. Cabell.

The will of the late T. C. Leake was ad-mitted to probate in the Chancery Court yesterday. It reads as follows:

I, Thaddeus Constantine Leake, Jr., of the city of Richmond, being of sound mind, and realizing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, make and declare my last will and testament, viz:

SAITH, I give, unto—Lynchburg, Belle, H. 104;

Gould Rest, 114; Whitby, 104; Santalou-

ne, 102; King Ridge, 104; Glenwood, 102; W. D. Dry, 102.

Judge Waddill claimed it as a Congressional perquisite, and the Hon. John S. Wise claimed the postoffice as the only favor he had asked of President Harrison.

The line was withdrawn after the trial, and Waddill pressed Mr. Blair Morris. The fight has been raging for months, and each side was confident. Today Morris would seem top, the next day Grubbs.

When it was apparent that Malone had the patronage, he and his party withdrew, and spoke nearly all day. He was followed by Mr. Philip V. Coghill for the Commonwealth, who was speaking when the court adjourned. He resumed his argument yesterday morning, and was followed by Hon. George D. Wise for the prisoner. The judge reserved his decision.

MANDAMUS AWARDED.

Some time ago Mr. George W. Holt, a justice of the peace for Manchester, awarded a mandamus to the Circuit Court of Virginia.

In the hearing of the case before the magistrate, it was easily reported that Mr. Morris, of Lynchburg, was the avowed champion of Mr. Morrison, who was present.

A few days ago Judge Waddill simply grinned and said nothing.

A few days ago Judge Waddill openly proclaimed that he would have the amount paid by the 15th of this month. Important business carried him to Kentucky and Indiana, and he appeared at the Circuit Court of Franklin, Indiana, on the 15th, and the following day he was present at the trial of the Peterburg "Boys" at Washington.

From the tenor of your reply it seems clear that the grounds of the decision are not yet understood. Notwithstanding Governor Pierpont's present recollection, he did not receive from Mr. Lamb any money from the United States, but received from him the sum of $1,000.

Mr. Lamb's account, rendered to him by the auditor, states that he received $1,000.

The issue of the conflict and some interesting developments may be expected before a culminating is reached,

MAYOR'S COCKET.

Justice James M. Bogard, of the Mayor's court yesterday. He gave two tramps two hours in which to get out of town. The young white man from Richmond, who, in a drunken spree, rode up and down Hull Street last Thursday in the rain, rendering himself liable to arrest, was released.

Mr. Bogard said he had received all the information concerning the case, and he advised him to return to Richmond.

The "kicker" and Mahometans are making progress, and an appointment is made that is important.

Mr. W. D. Lithgow yesterday tendered his resignation as high constable for the city of Manchester, to take effect when his successor is appointed.

On the other hand, the Malonees are making progress, and an appointment is made that is important.
